

Mott Common Expectations

Responsibility	Respect	Safety
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Being on time to class means being in your assigned seat with your phone in the phone holder when the bell rings● Have materials ready to begin class● All phones, headphones, & earbud cases, & earbuds should be in holders when the bell rings● Student electronics should remain in the holder during instructional time - including while on a pass● Engage and attempt all classroom activities and discussions	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Electronics, including chromebooks, should not be used unless you have been given permission to use them by the teacher● Listen when others are speaking● Use appropriate language, volume, and tone while in class● Avoid distracting others● Avoid leaving your seat during instructional time for unnecessary reasons● Take care of the classroom and school: clean up after yourself, do not draw on desks or walls, and be careful with classroom items	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Do not touch other people or their belongings● Students will use SmartPass for passes. Students will leave their electronics in the room while on a pass.● Students will be permitted to have 3 bathroom passes a day during instructional time● During all drills, students are expected to be quiet and follow directions