AT&T Volunteers Stuffed Backpacks for Students at Donelson Hills Elementary

September 13, 2016, Waterford, Mich. – AT&T Michigan Pioneers presented 40 backpacks filled with school supplies to the Principal Anne Kruse at Donelson Hills Elementary School. Teachers and educators will deliver the backpacks to students in need who are enrolled at the school.

The packs included folders, paper, pencils and other essential school supplies. AT&T Pioneers plan to distribute more than 2,600 backpacks across Michigan this fall.

“AT&T Michigan Pioneers are active company employees and retirees who volunteer their personal time to enhance the communities where they work and live,” said Jim Murray, president of AT&T Michigan. “Each year, they lead the ‘Tools for Learning’ campaign, raising money and buying supplies to support thousands of students heading back to school.”
