Waterford School District Employee to Receive Prestigious Arc Awards

March 3, 2017, Waterford, Mich. – The Arc of Oakland County has announced it will award Waterford School District employees Kathy Anaya, Mason Middle School Social Worker, the 2017 President’s Award and Ashley Buchanan, Children’s Village School K-6 Special Education Teacher, the 2017 Leonard Cercone Teacher of the Year Award. Carmen Kennedy will receive the 2017 Al Carter Volunteer of the Year Award. The Arc of Oakland County recognizes individuals who have made significant contributions and improvements to the quality of life for children and adults with developmental disabilities.

These special awards will be presented at the 47th Annual Dove Awards presentation and banquet on Friday, March 24, 2017, at the San Marino Club in Troy. The Arc of Oakland County is a non-profit United Way agency serving children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families throughout Oakland County. The Arc of Oakland County works through education, research and advocacy to improve the quality of life for advocates for children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities.
