Parent/Care Giver Seminar

Parenting a child with special and unique needs can bring with it a whole host of challenges and stressors. In this seminar, parents will receive an overview of the emotional trauma that is often experienced while receiving practical coping skills that can be implemented to live a more balanced and healthy life.

Support Seminars

Each month, you as a parent and caregiver will have the opportunity to receive educational opportunities that will focus on specific topics that are relevant to caring for a child with special and unique needs. In addition to the valuable tools that will be offered, you will receive the care and support of others in a confidential and safe environment with those who share similar experiences in caring for our children.

Parent's Social

We believe that creating balance in life is essential, especially for those who are parents and care providers of those with special and unique needs. Our Parent's Social nights are just that. Not only do they encourage you to make time for yourself, but they also provide opportunities to connect with others who are caring for children with special and unique needs in a kid free, fun and relaxed atmosphere!
