I understand and agree to the following:

- I understand that I must complete all work assigned for the course including any offline assignments, and pass the summative exam with 60% or better to receive credit. Calculation for grade is 90% of coursework and 10% of summative exam. Average percentage for course including summative exam shall be no lower than 70% for credit to be awarded.
- I will make sure that the work is my own. Plagiarism or falsification of documents or work will not be accepted. You will be removed from the program, not receive credit, and not allowed to return. See the Policy on Online Academic Integrity for further explanation.
- Students should complete at least once course per semester.
- End dates: First semester: January 22, 2014. Second semester: Seniors: May 23, 2014 Underclassmen: June 6, 2014.
- I understand that incomplete courses will NOT BE CARRIED OVER INTO THE SUMMER OR THE NEXT SCHOOL YEAR.
- I will work weekly to complete courses and have progress completed as stated.
- I understand I can work anywhere high speed internet is available. Including the school computer lab, local library, and from my home. If I am behind in progress, I will come in to the Lab, by request of the teacher.
- I understand that the summative exam for the course must be taken during after school credit recovery in my building Monday – Wednesday 2:30 – 4:30 or if not available, by making an appointment with Online Learning Services.
- I understand that credit recovery courses are an independent program and there is no tutor. I am responsible for progress monitoring.
- I understand that the Information for the program will be delivered by email and my email address is current and school appropriate.
- I understand that the Waterford School District is not liable for the loading of the program on my personal computer. Once I have my log in and passwords, it is my responsibility to load the program on my computer.
- Deadlines to apply: Seniors – April 4, 2014 Underclassmen - March 28, 2014.
