

Core Beliefs

- All students can and want to learn
- All students can be successful in reaching their potential
- We influence the conditions for student success
- Positive relationships that foster trust and respect promote individual success
- Everyone possesses unique strengths and needs
- High expectations powerfully impact achievement
- Embracing cultural and individual diversity promotes dignity, worth and value in everyone